University Heights Association, Inc. SPECIAL EDITION

August, 1999

This month's FENCETALK is a special edition only. We are publishing it to bring you information about our newly elected neighborhood board, as well as information about the neighborhood picnic in September. Regular articles, calendar of activities and classified and unclassified ads will resume with next month's edition.

PICNIC BUTTON CONTEST

Design the 1999 University Heights picnic button and become part of our history. Picnic buttons are sure to become valuable collectors items. Your winning design could be included with the historical buttons pictured below. This contest is open to all ages. The prize is 15 seconds of fame, a free button and your name published in Fence Talk.

The actual button is 2 1/4" in diameter, but we are giving you a larger circle to work on. Enter as many designs as you wish, but please put each design on a separate piece of paper with all of the information requested below.

Send to: Paula O'Keefe 6919 Columbia by September 13th.
